Time. It marks our milestones in life. Each minute, each hour, each day is used in the quest to add value to our lives, to spark a change, to discover the next best thing. Time is the most valuable gift bestowed upon man for with it one can become re-invented, create new life, or squander it and wonder in regret where it went. The Breguet watch has been a fashionable time piece of histories notable patrons. Marie Antoinette no doubt cherished each movement of her watch during her final hours of life. Baron Danglar fondly gazed upon his Breguet watch while Edmond Dantes scratches out time on the prison cell in the Chateau d'If.

Time. How it is handled is a direct reflection of the dreams, goals, passions and standards one keeps for oneself. A Breguet watch is a public declaration to the world that you value time, that you are a success and that you live in integrity with the gift of time. That is why the Breguet watch has signature features that ensure it's authenticity such as the engine-turned dials, the caseband fluting, the secret signature, the Breguet numerals and a single number that identifies your investment, your identity, your timeline and your journey. The beauty of each time piece is lies in the craftsmanship behind the Breguet hands, the chronograph, the magnetic pivot, perpetual calendar and the fact that each piece is a timeless fashion accessory that increases in value with each generation. Imagine a grandfather handing his grandson a Breguet watch at graduation, passing on a tradition and a gift that unmistakable states, "I'm proud of you". A family tradition that leaves a trail of stories, antidotes, history, hard work and love.
